PROMPT ACTION OF THE MISSIS. SIPPI LEGISLATURE.

Agentleman who arrived from Jackson on vesterday, apprises us of an important action taken by the Mississippi Legislature on Thursday last, looking to the defense of the Mississippl valley. That body, upon hearing that more troops were needed at Columbus in view of an apprehended attack from the enemy, immediately passed a bill authorizing the Governor to call out an optional number of voluntoers for such time as their services may be needed as an aux-Thary force to our army up the river. A half million deliars were also voted to maintain these treops at the expense of the State while in the
